It's Time to Pay Those Taxes Again - Town Collectors Set Up Offices

Beginning this week Burnett W. Schram, collector for Frankfort township will begin collecting real and personal taxes due on the 1956 valuations.

He will be at the Frankfort State Bank May 2, 10, 16, 24 and 29 from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. On the two Fridays, May 2 and 16, he will also have evening hours from 6 to 8 o'clock, and will keep the same hours on Thursday, May 29. Hours on the dates that fall on Saturday will be from 9 a.m. to 12 noon.

The Mokena State Bank will serve as his headquarters in that community and he will be there May 3, 9, 17, and 31. He also will have office hours in Mokena on two Friday evenings, May 9 and 23, from 6 to 8 p.m. as well as from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. which are the regular periods for all days except Saturday, when the hours are 9 a.m. to noon.

Real estate taxes are billed in two equal installments. The first installment becomes delinquent after June 1 and the second installment after Sept. 1, and each draws interest and costs thereafter until the tax sale. After that the penalties are heavier.

Personal taxes are not paid in installments and are delinquent and subject to penalty after June 1.

Town collectors terminate their work June 1. After that the county treasurer takes over as collector.

In New Lenox township the collector, Edward A. Osmus, maintains his office at his home, 419 North Cedar road. In Orland township the collector, Mrs. Margaret Loebe, does her collecting at two points—her regular real estate office at 9917 W. 143rd st., and Hollstein school.

She will have regular hours at the realty office from 9:30 to 5 p.m. daily, except Saturdays. On Saturdays, May 10, 17 and 24, she will be at the Hollstein school from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. and at her office in Orland Park Saturday afternoons from 2 to 6 o'clock. Mrs. Loebe

Mokena Fire Dept. to Give 13th Annual Dance Saturday

Mokena Lions to Aid Program At Trinity School Thru Pancake sale

The Mokena Lions club members are getting out chef's caps and whetting up their favorite spatulas in preparation for their annual pancake day.

The event will be held again this year in the VFW hall on Wolf road, Saturday, May 10. Serving will begin at 6 a.m. and continue until 2:00 in the afternoon.

The first year the club served pancakes the affair was a semi-outdoor event. A tent was pitched at Mokena and Front streets and tables were set up under canvas. This was not too satisfactory. It was a windy day and customers kept complaining about what they thought was pepper on the cakes. The kitchen crew was having its troubles too.

When the strong gusts came it was impossible to turn the cakes without them sailing off into the wild blue yonder.

The next year the Lions moved the operation to the VFW hall and similar arrangements were made this year by Ralph Thompson, pancake chairman.

School Needs Aid

Proceeds from the pancake affair will be turned over to Trinity school on Gougar road which is conducted for mentally handicapped children in the Joliet area. It has been pointed out from various sources that while the state law requires that all children within certain age limits be furnished with facilities for an education, state and local school authorities will not provide funds to provide schools for mentally retarded children.

The burden for providing such facilities falls upon the parents and so various organizations aid the cause from time to time. The Mokena Lions club is such an agency and since it will turn over the proceeds from the pancake program to Trinity school the members are asking the public to lend its support to the event.

Tickets for the cakes are being sold now at Geisler's drug store, Richardson's market, Jim's tavern, Muehler's tavern, and are also being mailed out in

William Martin Post No. 725, VF Wof Mokena is sponsoring a Rock N' Roll Jubilee that is to be held the next three Sundays at its clubhouse on Wolf road.

All teenagers in the area are invited and they may register tonight or tomorrow between 7 and 9 p.m. to avoid any delays on Sunday.

L-W, Sandburg Bands, Choruses to Give Concerts

Two concerts are scheduled in the area, one at Lincoln-Way high school Sunday, May 4, at 3 p.m. and one at Carl Sandburg high on Saturday night, May 9 at 8 o'clock.

Both programs will include vocal solos as well as selections by choruses in addition to the band numbers.

At Lincoln-Way

The Lincoln-Way band, under the direction of Robert Taylor, will play:

Block M March Bilek
Overture, Richard III. German
Highlights of Gershwin

Yoder

Prelude and Fugue Bach
The first two selections were played at the state contest in Peoria. Four of the Division I ratings at Peoria will also play—the saxophone quartet, brass quartet, alto clarinetist, Sharon Jedlick and baritone soloist, Charles Hammond.

The chorus division, under direction of Tom Olson, will use five choruses: Girls glee club, Boys Glee club, Sophomore Chorus, combined contest groups and the Mixed Chorus.

Soloists Kay Seltzer, Bonnie Rydell, Shirley Weber, David Erikson, Wendell Anderson and Kenneth Soderland will be featured along with the double girls ensemble.

The band and chorus will combine to do Wilhousy's arrangement of "The Battle Hymn of the Republic." Tickets may be purchased from members of any of the groups or at the door.

At Carl Sandburg

The concert band, the concert choir and the Girls Chorus will present their final program of the year on May 9.

This will not be the end of work for the music groups but it will be the final concert, as such, of the season. After their appearance May 9 the band will begin preparations for its appearance in the Harvard Milk Day parade and the choir for its tour of the elementary schools and the PTA program.

The band is under the direction of Milton Potter while the choral work is directed by Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Peerson.

Tickets for the concert may be purchased from members of the various musical groups or at the door.

The band will present the three selections it played at the state contest at Peoria:

The Mokena Community Volunteer fire department will hold its annual dance Saturday night at the VFW hall on Wolf road, Mokena. Dancing will begin at 8 o'clock.

A pinocle tournament to be held in conjunction with the affair is scheduled to begin at the same time. A number of valuable prizes will be awarded.

This will be the 13th year that Mokena firemen have sponsored a dance to raise money for the department's needs. The Mokena department is a completely volunteer outfit and does not share in any tax money.

The members contribute their time and efforts to protect the lives and property of the community. They answer calls anywhere in the area and assist neighboring departments whenever called.

In addition to equipment for fighting fire the Mokena department also has an inhalator and since it has been in use for the past year several lives have been saved. Persons suffering heart attacks, difficulty in breathing and other illnesses where the use of oxygen is indicated, make use of the inhalator. Members of the department have been trained to use this device and are ready for calls at any time of the day or night.

All equipment and the necessary supplies such as hose couplings, spare parts are purchased by the department thru donations or fund campaigns. Such are the source for repairs too, so a volunteer fireman, it was pointed out, not only risks life and limb and loses sleep in fighting fires, but also must serve as a promoter of fund raising campaigns and then go out and do the soliciting.

In the past year the Mokena department has purchased a tank truck to assure a reserve supply of water. The tank has a capacity of 900 gallons. It also has a pump.

The department needs some new hose now and it could use some protective clothing for the men when they are battling a blaze. The department has but five helmets and half a dozen rain coats.

As a rule, it was pointed out, between 20 and 30 men turn out to fight a fire. Boots, raincoats and helmets to equip 30 men is another goal for firemen or for some organization interested in promoting community welfare, it was pointed out.

Practically every resident of Mokena has received tickets for the dance thru the mail but persons who did not receive them can purchase them easily enough at the door Saturday night.

SPONSOR DANCE

The Band Boosters of Frankfort are sponsoring a dance to be held in the Frankfort school gym Saturday, May 10 starting at 9 p.m. A local young people's orchestra, the Teen Tones will furnish the music. The proceeds will be used for the Frankfort band.

BIKE SAFETY

Good weather is coming, and it won't be long before schools close for the long summer vacation. And wheels will be spinning—bicycle wheels.

Let's hope those wheels spin both merrily and safely.

Last year bicycle accidents accounted for 480 deaths and 30,000 injuries—and this figure does not count deaths in which a bike was the indirect cause.

A simple safety code, if followed, would cut those figures by tremendous percentages. It is essential that beginners learn to ride in a safe place, away from traffic; that they buy the right size bicycle, and that they learn correct riding techniques.

HOME IS WHERE THE TAX IS!
Most of us who read of early times in the life of our nation marvel at the fortitude and courage displayed by the pioneers in hewing out a home and place for himself.

And if we have a little time on our hands not allotted to TV, golf, baseball, our ways of making a living and worries over space rovers and atom splitters, we might rise and hail the courage and fortitude of today's couples who scoff at gravity and buy a home.

Don't mis-dig us. We are fully aware that the property owner—particularly the homeowner—is the backbone of our economic structure. The federal government and some of the states depend upon a tax upon the earnings of individuals and

STARS—IN EYES—AND PLAY—"I don't know exactly what to say—I've never met a girl just like you, and I don't want to say or do the wrong thing."

This is a line from "We Were Young That Year," and one that could be trotted out sometime with possible tremendous effect at other times and in other places.

Allan Jaklich, as Sandy, has the male lead, and beside him here in the principal feminine role is Sandra Smith, as Nancy.

"We Were Young That Year" is to be presented in the Carl Sandburg auditorium by the sophomore class, tonight and tomorrow night, May 1 and 2. Curtain time is 8:15.

companies for the bulk of their revenue, but the real estate tax is carrying the load in most places.

The pioneer had his troubles, it is true. He may have had to carry a gun while doing his chores to protect himself from man as well as varmints and there were occasions when he may have had to resort to physical force to retain possession of his home. But there was nothing complicated about it. Society recognized that man had a right to protect his property and gave him rather a wide latitude as to method and result.

But if the pioneer were to return today to own, maintain and operate a home of his own, his first urge would be to go back where he came from, no doubt, and his second inclination would be to doff his hat or coonskin cap to the modern home owner. There is a man with what it takes.

If and when he has been able to pay off the mortgage, meet all the payments on the appliances, pay all the maintenance and repair costs—and the taxes, so that the place is now really his, he may find it later than he thinks. Retirement time is not too distant but he is not disturbed.

He has always been told that if one had his own home and a pension coming in, life in retirement could indeed be a bowl of cherries. But that was before taxes began going up and up!

The pioneer could protect his home against marauders but his rifle, knife and hatchet would not serve him now against the tax increase.

This week a homeowner appeared in the office of a tax collector to find out if there was some way he could pay his tax bill in monthly installments.

He was retired, he explained, and all he had coming in in the way of money was a pension of $100 a month. The tax bill on his home was $400, a right tidy sum for a modest dwelling under any circumstances but when it means a third of one's total income, it becomes tragic. If the owner doesn't pay, the home eventually will be sold for taxes. If he borrows the money, paying it back could become quite a chore, and probably the end result of that transaction would be the same—loss of the place.

The tax collector is not to be blamed, nor the assessor, nor the county clerk who figures out the rates thru which the tax bills are made. They are just doing a job.

The blame falls on most of us. New taxing bodies are created to perform a special service requested by a few; old taxing bodies demand more money to perform special services requested by this group or that group; frills are not only added by the schools, as is so often charged, but other taxing bodies provide frills too, usually on the demand of pressure groups.

Most of us are lured into approving a lot of costly things by the promise of getting something for nothing. We should live so long, for that will be the day!

In the meantime we can keep a close check on expenditures at local governmental levels. There are necessities, of course, which must be met but we can put an end to the fancy stuff.

Time says that "the first real casualty of the current recession may well be the middle-priced automobile." Sales of these cars dropped from 37 per cent of the market in 1955 to 29 per cent last year, and this year the decline has been "phenomenal"—70 per cent in the case of one long-established make.

It is truly said the devotion of a mother is our nearest approach to Heaven on Earth.

Anna Jarvis subscribed to that belief when she founded Mother's Day years ago.

We wear a red carnation or rose to honor our mothers who live ... a white one in memory of mothers who have gone.

It is important, also, to perpetuate the memory of loved ones in some lasting form.

Let us help you in your selection of a fitting memorial.

He was born in Orland township, April 24, 1897, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ferdinand Schmidt. After the death of his father, he moved with his mother to Mokena and for the last number of years lived with his sister, Christina. He was a painter by trade and for several years was in ill health. He died in Silver Cross hospital April 18 where he had been a patient for a few weeks.

Surviving beside his sister, are three other sisters, Mrs. Minnie Bielfeldt, Joliet; Mrs. Lillian Warning, and Mrs. Lydia Muller, Mokena; three brothers, Edward, Mokena, William, Orland Park and John of Joliet.

Lincoln-Way Parents Group Plan Dance

The Parents-Teachers group of Lincoln-Way high school will hold its last meeting of this school term, Wednesday evening, May 7 in the high school, with Mrs. Clarence Lauffer, Mokena, president presiding.

The program will be a style show, given by the students of the Home Ec department under the head of their instructor, Mrs. Mildred Foster.

The new officers who were elected at the April meeting will be installed. They are, Lorin Schleeter, Manhattan, president; Mrs. C. L. Klasing, New Lenox, vice president; Mrs. Fred Hentsch, Mokena, secretary; Mrs. Carl Ryden, New Lenox, treasurer and program chairman, Mrs. George Kahler, Lincoln Estates.

The P-TG will sponsor its post-prom dance in the school Saturday, May 17. As this is one of the two money-making projects of the year, the group wants to remind everyone who can to attend this dance. The other money-making project, is a dinner served to the Illinois Education association members in the fall. With these two projects it is seen that the P-TG does not dissipate its energy in many money-raising efforts. The group has, thru these efforts, been able to purchase curtains for the auditorium which was opened in February.

Frankfort Auto Dealer Speaks at Sales Seminar

Ralph Show, of the Cooper Show Ford agency at Frankfort, was one of the main speakers at the Dealers Sales Management seminar held last week at Minneapolis by the Ford company.

From the company's main office at Detroit an analysis was made of all the dealers and those rated as having done outstanding jobs in sales management were given the opportunity to attend the seminar.

How to increase sales, of course, the major topic of discussion.

Mr. Show was at Minneapolis on Tuesday and Wednesday. All expenses for the trip were paid by the Ford Co.

Open School, to Next Years First Graders

Orland Park youngsters who will enroll in the first grade next fall have an opportunity now to become acquainted with the school at first hand. In the next two weeks, from May 5 to the 15th these children can visit the classroom they will occupy next year. They may come in the morning or afternoon.

School authorities feel that the time is well spent in that that, children become acquainted with the room and the school plant in general, the teacher and new friends. They also learn about school routine, that they must sit still and refrain from chattering.

The teacher also gets a pre-school view of her charges-to-be. School officials say that the direct meeting of parents and teacher, plus the printed information relative to preparing children for their entry into school, accomplished much in hastening the period of readiness for formal learning.

Registration for the first grade has been completed. Parents who have not registered their children are requested by school officials to attend to this detail as soon as possible.

The first to be contacted will be those who have indicated their interest by attending previous meetings or responding to a survey conducted some months ago.

Actually, membership will be open to all who have business interests in Frankfort, including those who deal in services as well as in merchandising.

29 L-W Juniors Take Natl. Merit Scholarship Test

Twenty-nine students at the Lincoln-Way high school took the National Merit Scholarship qualifying test on Tuesday, April 29, according to Supt. A. Hunter Chapman.

An estimated $5 million in Merit Scholarships and other awards are at stake in the national competition, now beginning its fourth year. Some $12 million in Merit Scholarships have been awarded in the first three years of the program.

Merit Scholarships are provided by some 80 corporations, foundations, professional societies and individuals, as well as by the National Merit Scholarship Corporation itself, which conducts the competition.

The National Merit Scholarship qualifying test is a three hour measure of educational growth and aptitude. Emphasis is on board intellectual skills, and on understanding and ability to use what has been learned, rather than on sheer knowledge of facts.

A group of 10,000 students—composed of the highest scorers in each state—will advance to the semi-finals when the results are reported to all participating schools next fall. Semi-finalists will then take a second examination. Those who repeat their high performance on the second examination will become finalists in the program and will indicate their choice of college and course of study. Further evaluation of their grades, citizenship, and extra-curricular achievements will follow, and the winners will be announced in the Spring of 1959.

Winners of VFW Loyalty Day Essay Contest Get Awards Today

In conjunction with the proclamation of Veterans of Foreign Wars, declaring May 1 of each year as Loyalty Day, the V.F.W. Post 2791 of Tinley Park has conducted a contest in the local schools to aid children in realizing the meaning of Loyalty Day.

The children were asked to write essays on "What America Means to Me" and two winners, one boy and one girl from each school as well as the Tinley Teen club were chosen.

Chairman of the essay contest is Frank Jeffords. The board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce were the judges. The final winners are: William Tindall and Diane Knudsen, 8th grade students in the Tinley public school; Bernard Boyle and Mary Kenny, 8th grade students at St. George Parochial school; Billy Mohank and Carol Kimmel, of Trinity Lutheran school, and Tom Blount and Bonnie Bettenhausen, of the Teen club.

At ceremonies today in the Central school the winners will be awarded a citizenship medal and the schools will receive plaques with the names of the winners inscribed. Police Chief Harold C. Moore, will make the presentation.

Today, the national president of the VFW will appear before Congress to request that May 1, Loyalty Day be declared a legal holiday in America to offset the May 1 May Day celebration of Communists.

Four of the prize winning entries appear below. The remaining four will be published next week.

"America, to me, is the land of freedom and opportunity where a person may find a great deal of happiness through living conditions which do not exist in the same way in other countries.

"Our government is made by the people and the right of an individual are topmost, as long as they do not conflict with the rights of others. Lincoln referred to it as "government of the people, by the people, and for the people."

"I believe that this freedom, protected by the Constitution, and expressed in our "free enterprise system" gives me the right to live my life as I choose to do the kind of work I prefer, and to get paid generally what I earn.

"This system has given us better living conditions than any other country. We have better food and more of it we have many kinds of labor-saving devices; we have more automobiles, television sets and other luxuries.

"Our communities have provided better schools, hospitals, and public parks than any country.

"Because of our freedom and practical system of free enterprise, millions of Americans, like me, can look forward to the greatest happiness and security in the world."

William Tindall
8th Grade Central School

"The general philosophy of our country is to look after the rights of the individual. We guarantee him religious freedom, public education, free election and the other rights granted by the Constitution.

"America offers many wonderful opportunities and scenic beauty to enjoy. Sometimes it seems we take them for granted. We should be thankful and grateful.

"America means healthy living and if you're sick medical care. Our doctors and researchers are always looking for new cures assuring better health for future generations.

"Our homes are safe and secure. All the law administrators help us live a life with nothing to fear.

"Our country is free from tyranny. We have a voice in our government and can't have our rights taken away without due process of law. "Not to appreciate the liberties and opportunities of America is to waste a life many people dream and wish for.

"I therefore believe it is my duty to my country to love it; to support its constitution; to obey its laws; to respect its Flag, and to defend it against all enemies."

—From "The American's Creed" by William Tyler Page.

Diane Knudsen
8th Grade Central School

America, this land of plenty, means more to me than it does to any child born in America. This is due to the fact that I was born in a foreign country not half as bountiful as America. I came to America when I was seven years of age and I have found that in America we have so much to be thankful for. Some of these benefits are, the freedom to exercise our God-given rights; such as, the freedom of speech, freedom of the press and also have the freedom of religion. Here we are free to think, to hold opinions, and to speak without fear. Everyone has the opportunity to live a normal happy and useful life.

America is the land of many opportunities for one who wants to work and better himself. No other country in the world has a school system equal to ours where one can get a well-rounded education. Here we can work and play without fear, here we are rich and blessed with advantages money cannot buy; above all, the deep feeling of security and happiness.

America so well-organized both socially and religiously could truly be called the land of the 'free' and the home of the 'brave'.

Mary Kenny
8th Grade St. George School

"America" the mere mention of that name brings to my mind the thought of a land of opportunity where nothing is impossible, where a lowly immigrant can become a successful businessman; where everyone, whether rich or poor, has equal rights. It is one of the nations of the world where all the basic God-given rights of mankind are enjoyed. This is the land where no one, even the most powerful figures, can deprive you of any of your inalienable rights.

"However, these rights should not be taken for granted. To defend these rights, many of our forefathers have fought and died, on foreign soil as well as our native homeland. Many of those rights were hard to come by and even harder to retain. For the sake of these rights America has fought in six major wars and in one police action. Our forefathers have gained these rights for us, and have left us with the duty to preserve them for our future generations. Therefore it is not only a duty, but a privilege to be loyal citizens of the United States of America.

Maple Arbor of Gleaners Holds Family Party

By MRS. LOREN SASS
Tel. New Lenox 3133
Gleaners Family Night

The Maple Street Arbor of Gleaners held their annual family party Friday night at the Homer town hall. Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Anderson and Mr. and Mrs. Angelo DePra were chairmen of the affair which was well attended. Cards and buncos were played and several prizes awarded. Edward Beaver was the recipient of the special prize. After the games refreshments were served.

Guests were Supreme Councilman and Mrs. Roy Rathman, Mrs. Nellie Goodnecht, and Mr. and Mrs. J. Rathman of Kankakee Arbor; Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Eichelberger and Mrs. Walter Kolar and children of the West Lockport Arbor.

Bridal Shower

Miss Darlyne Cleveland was feted at a bridal shower Sunday afternoon in the New Lenox Lions den. Hostesses were Mrs. DeLoris Huttenhoff, Mrs. Donna Blackwell, Miss Carol Stockley, Miss Hester Cruise and Miss Pat Sproat.

Decorations were carried out in mint green and white, the bride elect's chosen colors. Miss Cleveland was presented with a corsage of white daisies.

Take away bingo was played. Duplicate prizes were presented to the honored guest. She found her many miscellaneous gifts placed under a mint green and white umbrella and was assisted in opening her gifts by the hostesses and little Cindy Huttenhoff.

Refreshments were served buffet style from a pretty table appointed with a bride doll cake and mint green and white favors. About 60 guests were present.

Miss Cleveland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Cleveland of Marley, will become the bride of James Hischer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hischer of Joliet, May 24, at 2 o'clock in St. John's church in Joliet. The reception will be held at 7:30 o'clock at Cantigny Post in Joliet. Some invitations have been issued but all relatives and friends are invited to attend both the wedding and reception. A mother and daughter banquet will be held in the Marley church Tuesday, May 13 at 7:30 pm., sponsored by the ways and means committee of the Missionary society. Call Mrs. James Tilsy, Mokena 5682 for tickets.

Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher Binion Sr. of Florida arrived here Monday to spend two weeks in their home here.

A card and buncos party will be held in the Homer Consolidated school Friday night, May 2, beginning at 8 o'clock, sponsored by the Homer Community Consolidated club. There will be refreshments and prizes.

The Marley Womans club was represented by Mrs. Charles Elliott, Mrs. J. Patric, Mrs. Beatrice Coe, Mrs. John Hasibar and Mrs. Margaret Volz at the Will County Club League Tri-annual at Elwood Tuesday.

Show New Model Home At Orland Park Hills

First showing in the Chicago area of the latest moderately priced model produced by National Homes Corp. will be held this week-end in Orland Park Hills, it was announced today by Martin H. Braun and Frank M. Aldridge, developers of this new southwest suburban community in the heart of Cook county's recreational area.

Known as the Laredo, the new contemporary-style model features a family room with optional fireplace, three bedrooms and two full baths. It is priced at around $18,000, including lot.

An interior decorator has furnished the new model home in contemporary fashion featuring teak wood in Danish style, previously found only in custom designed furniture.

"It is a privilege to exclusively introduce this new Laredo model to the Chicago area market," said the developers.

"We consider it a choice addition to our present models, which received such a gracious reception from the public when they were introduced last fall."

It is the policy of the developers of Orland Park Hills to periodically introduce new models and change floor plans so as to assure architectural variety and avoid the monotony found in some new communities, it was pointed out by Cole Keyes, director of sales.

"Trinity school was started in 1953", a spokesman for the Lions club said, "to help the trainable, mentally handicapped children in the Joliet area. The students enrolled there are quite different from those patients some of you may have seen when visiting Tinley State hospital last week-end as a part of the observance of mental health week.

All children of the community who have passed their fourth birthday are invited to enroll. The committee in charge of the school is asking for an early registration in order that a sufficient amount of materials can be ordered.

Bill Graham Film Will Be Shown at Tinley Wednesday

The unusual documentary film account of Billy Graham's crusade in New York, entitled, "Miracle In Manhattan" will be shown in the Nazarene church in Tinley Park next Wednesday evening, May 7 at 7:30 'clock.

The popular "Mr. and Mrs. New York", Jinx Falkenburg and Tex McCrary who head their own NBC television program daily from the Waldorf-Astoria hotel, report the 16-week coverage of Mr. Graham's largest Crusade for Christianity.

They set the stage with a photographic tour of Manhattan followed by the crusade's opening night at Madison Square Garden. High moments in the picture include the overflow crowd that jammed Yankee stadium.

Beside Billy Graham, the film shows the singing of George Beverly Shea, the music by the massive choir, directed by Cliff Barrows; a brief appearance of Vice-President Richard M. Nixon; a glimpse of Ethel Waters singing with the choir and the final service at 42nd st. and Broadway.

Everyone is cordially invited, there will be no admission charged but a free will offering will be taken.

2000 Attend Open House At State Hospital

The Open House at the Tinley Park State hospital last Sunday was very successful. About 2,000 persons inspected the various buildings and facilities in a two-hour tour. Visitors were transported to the various buildings by bus. Refreshments were served in the hospital dining room at the completion of the tour.

Visitors expressed surprise at the modern buildings housing the mental patients and the facilities provided for their comfort and well being.

Volunteers, many of them from Tinley Park, aided in escorting groups of visitors.

Patients at the hospital appeared to have enjoyed the Open House as much as the visitors.

Dr. John Cutler, hospital superintendent, and other officials are to be commended for the efficient handling of the inspection tour by interested residents of the area.

Voice Complaints on Wandering Dogs at Orland Meeting

Mayor W. R. Schussler, Jr., of Orland Park, reported Monday night that complaints about stray dogs have been tapering off as far as he was concerned but Trustee Ike Cleveland had a different experience.

He has been receiving one to 14 complaints a day concerning these wandering pooches. The board would have police tight control on the situation. Tickets should be issued to the owners of the offending canines, the trustees agreed.

Inoculate Dogs, Issue Licenses at Orland Fire Home

In order to conduct a rabies control program in Orland Park dogs will be inoculated in the fire department engine house on Beacon st. from 2 to 5 pm. May 17. This announcement has been made by village clerk Kenneth Halvorson.

A veterinarian will be present and a fee of $2 for each inoculation will be charged. Licenses will be issued for dogs at a cost of $3 each.

Draft Revised Zoning Measure At Orland Park

Among other matters of business discussed at the Orland Park village board meeting Monday, were the drafting of a revised ordinance and adoption of another on parking.

The village attorney, Raymond Pieper, was instructed to draw up an ordinance, changing the zoning ordinance for presentation to the council for passage. The revised ordinance concerns only commercial lots in newly developed areas.

According to the new ordinance, these lots must have a depth of not less than 250 feet and a back yard of not less than 20 feet, the setback to be not less than 75 feet from the street.

In new subdivisions hereafter the minimum size of lots shall be 10,000 square feet. The minimum is now 7500 square feet.

The board also appointed George Brown, a master plumber, as assistant to the building inspector, Bob Miller.

The ordinance adopted limits parking to two hours on 143rd st., between the Wabash tracks and the east line of West ave., between 6 a.m. and 6 p.m. Business houses in the area have been complaining of cars parking there all day.

Orland Teachers Would Improve Reading Program

Tomorrow will be a holiday for youngsters in the Orland Park grade school. There will be no classes because the teaching staff will be busy with a workshop program devoted to reading.

Whether Johnny can or can't read—and why, has been a controversial subject nationally for several years now. There has been no debate on the subject at Orland Park, it was pointed out. The interest lies in the fact that the grade school staff and Supt. Norbert Jerling are interested in Johnny learning to read well, as speedily as possible.

To this end the faculty has been making a study of reading programs, locally and nationally, for the past two years and is contemplating changes which will further improve it.

The Orland teachers will visit classes at South Stickney tomorrow morning. New approaches to reading are in use there.

From 12 noon to 3:30 in the afternoon the workshop will be conducted at Orland grade school and the public is invited to attend.

The Orland Park grade school board has indicated its interest by authorizing a remedial reading program to be conducted this summer and by encouraging Supt. Jerling and the faculty in working for improvement of the school's reading program.

40 Permits With $469,000 Value Issued In Orland

Increased activity in construction is evident with the approach of warmer weather.

To confirm that fact the village board of Orland Park on Monday night authorized the issuance of 40 building permits, 39 for homes and one for a residential garage.

The total valuation of the 40 permits amounts to $469,000, for which the village collected $5,256 in permit fees.

Of the total permits issued, 38 were for homes in the Orland Park Gardens subdivision, one for a home issued to Thomas Cooper, 14231 Union ave., the other was issued to James A. Gray, 14918 West ave. to construct a garage with a valuation of $1,000. Valuation of the homes averages $12,000.

Approximately 90 homes will be built in the subdivision when these 38 are erected. It is expected they will be finished by mid-May but before that time other permits probably will have been issued. A new type of residence has also been added to the list of model home.

The question of overhang on the homes has been settled.

The width of the overhang by village authority is limited to 12 inches. Homes having a wider overhang must have additional space between homes.

Farmer Run Over By Tractor In Freak Accident

Arthur Bettenhausen, 58 years old, of 80th avenue, Tinley Park suffered multiple fractured ribs and a punctured left lung in a tractor accident on his farm last Friday.

The farmer accidentally put the tractor in motion, as he was checking the gas before starting to work. He was knocked down and the tractor ran over his left side, fracturing six ribs on the left side and five on the right.

Mrs. Bettenhausen said Tuesday that his condition was still serious but that he was improving. He is in St. Francis hospital, Blue Island, where he was taken following the accident.

53,000 Americans were injured in car-bicycle mishaps in 1957.

More than 21 per cent of 1957 U. S. highway deaths occurred on Saturdays.

In a recent column I indicated that in spite of our high standard of living, many American diets were deficient in important nutrients. I specified the diets of farmers. This is incorrect. I should have said American families which includes everyone. Thanks are due to a very observant reader of this column.

Two of the gardening publications offered in this column last week were so popular with readers that my supply is exhausted. I will soon have a new supply however, so your request will be honored. "Fruit Leaflet No. 2" and "Growing Fruit for Home Use" are the publications which I do not have right now. The supply of the Illinois Garden Guide is good.

In view of the popularity of this type of service, I am listing some other titles which you may obtain free by writing to me at South street and 66th Ct., Tinley Park, Ill.: C-695, African Violets in the Home; C-729, How to have an Attractive Lawn; C-708, Pruning Narrowleaf Evergreens; C-720, Foundation Plantings; C-779, Pruning trees, shrubs, roses; C-453, Strawberry Culture in Illinois; C-508, Bramble Fruits; C-475, Growing Melons in Illinois; C-522, An Illinois Garden Guide.

If you knew a tornado was coming ten minutes from now, what would you do? Don't wait too long to decide. Above all, keep calm. Tornadoes usually move northeasterly at about 25 to 40 miles per hour. Open the windows and doors on the north and east sides of your home. This helps equalize the pressure and may save your house from destruction. The southwest corner of your basement offers the greatest personal safety.

Some injury from CIPC has occurred to onions in the South Cook area during past years. To avoid injury from CIPC, follow the recommendations below and the following precautions: 1. Use lower rate when temperature is below 60 degrees F.; 2. do not apply in flag stage; 3. direct spray so that only the lower 1 to 2 inches of the onions are hit; 4. do not use over 50 lb. pressure; and 5. use 50 to 100 gallons of water per acre for post-emergence treatment.

Apply CIPC at the rate of 4 to 6 lb. per acre 1 to 2 days before emergency. Apply post-emergency treatment at the rate of 6 to 8 lb. per acre when onions have at least three true leaves. These rates are expressed in active ingredient. There are 4 lb. of active ingredient in 1 gallon of Chloro IPC.

The price outlook for lower grades of beef and for dairy products does not warrant the holding of unprofitable dairy cows this spring, according to a University of Illinois extension dairy specialist.

Hog farming is rapidly moving toward more volume, higher efficiency and greater specialization, according to a speaker at the recent Illinois Swine Growers Day. This change will occur with or without contract production of hogs. However, contract production will make it more pronounced and happen more quickly.

Carpentier Urges Enforcement of Traffic Laws

Secretary of State Charles F. Carpentier today commended an article by California Governor Goodwin J. Knight, on punishment for drunken drivers as "must readying for every official connected with the problem of traffic safety in Illinois".

The article, entitled "We Jail Drunken Drivers", appears in the current edition of the Saturday Evening Post. It details the efforts of Governor Knight in the enforcement of the laws against drunken driving in California.

Secretary Carpentier said, "Governor Knight's articles dramatically focuses attention on the necessity of cooperation between all law enforcement and administrative officials. Illinois has the needed laws; all we require is the concentrated efforts of officials determined to enforce them without fear or favor."

Secretary Carpentier pointed out that conviction for drunken driving in Illinois can result in a jail sentence and carries with it a mandatory revocation of the person's driving privileges. "In addition," he said, "the publication of the revoked or suspended driver's name in his local newspaper adds an additional social stigma as many drivers are learning to their sorrow."

Business and Finance

By MAURICE P. ANGLAND,

The investment programs of the Mutual Funds, pension funds, and profit sharing funds which report their holdings publicly are closely watched by many investors. Together, these funds are reputed to control about 30 per cent of stocks listed on the New York Stock Exchange. However, most of these funds, either by policy or regulation, do not own more than 5 per cent of the voting stock of any one company.

For some time these institutional investors have favored the gas and oil industries. About 20 per cent of their funds are invested in the gas and oil industry. No other industrial group comes close to this percentage.

Revenues of the natural gas industry have tripled in the past 10 years. Plant investments in this industry now amount to about $16 billion. About 31 million customers now use gas for some purpose and about one third of the dwellings now use gas for heat. Many analysts of the future of natural gas express the opinion that growth of this industry in the next ten years will be close to that of the past ten years.

Value Line Investment Survey, one of the better known investment services, recommends gas utility stocks as suitable for purchase even by conservative investors.

This service points out that pipeline stocks now involve more risk than their high quality and previous performance would indicate. This is due to a recent high court decision in what is known as the "Memphis case." This has to do with the methods of rate adjustments by pipeline firms to distributing utilities and delay in such rate increases thru need to go thru extended hearings that plague the railroads in the interstate commerce commission. Many do not expect the supreme court to agree on this decision, but Value Line suggests gain potentials in pipeline stock outweigh the possibilities of loss.

Because of its spectacular post-war growth, the gas industry is thought of as a relatively new industry. Fact is its origins go back more than a century with use of manufactured gas. It was not until the early 1920's that natural really began to expand. However, subsidiaries of National Fuel Gas have been retailing natural gas for more than 50 years. Today natural gas accounts for more than 90 per cent of the retail-gas revenues of the country.

Value Line points out there are several areas where demand substantially exceeds the supply of natural gas. The service particularly mentions the Midwest as an example of this. It mentions Laclede Gas as illustrative of this situation. This utility distributes natural gas in St. Louis (Missouri) county where demand substantially exceeds natural gas supply available for peak load periods.

While a 100 per cent saturation is unlikely ever to be achieved, it is interesting to note that in some areas 90 per cent of gas connected homes use this fuel for heat.

The price of natural gas will no doubt rise with increased demand, increases in costs of exploration, production and transmission, etc. However, it is also most likely competing fuels will also rise in price.

Hold Meeting for Parents of Future Bremen Freshmen

To help students adjust to the transition from grade school to high school, parents of the more than 500 prospective students expected to enroll as freshmen at the Bremen Community High school, were invited to attend a meeting in the school last night.

The total enrollment of the school is expected to reach 1,750 next fall.

Parents were informed concerning several matters pertaining to the operation of the school and such matters as courses offered, student conduct, bus transportation, book store operation, school attendance, cafeteria operation, school calendar and general school policies were discussed.

Mrs. Honora Lahmann, principal of Homer consolidated schools, is announcing step-up day for first graders, to be May 2. The law provides that all children who are, or will be six years old by Dec. 1, are entitled to attend school that day. Mothers are asked to bring forth baptismal certificates and plan to stay until noon. Children are to bring sack lunch. An interesting program is being planned.

All other pupils already enrolled and wishing to do so for the fall term, please contact the school during the week of May 5 to 9.

Mrs. Muriel Reid presided at the April 17 meeting of the Mothers' club of 33-C. Hostesses were mothers of former Wells Corner school. A successful White Elephant sale at which Mrs. Russell Schacke and Mrs. Russell Lauffer acted as auctioneers, was enjoyed.

At the next meeting to be held May 15, election of officers will be held and the school picnic will be planned. Pot luck refreshments will be served, for which each mother is asked to bring a dish to pass.

On May 2, a card and buncó party will be held at the school. Tickets may be purchased from members or at the door.

Mr. and Mrs. James Coffey and family spent Monday night in the home of her brother, Chester Filipowicz and family, enroute to California where they will make their future home. They are moving from Chicago.

About 60 men met in the town hall Wednesday evening to discuss the fire protection problem in this area. Representatives were present from several neighboring fire departments.

The Maple St. Arbor of Gleaners held their annual social night at Homer town hall Friday evening.

Country Club Hills

Voters of School District 160 to Decide on State Aid Plan Saturday

By MRS. CHARLES WHITE
Tel. Sycamore 8-6620

This Saturday, May 3, is the day we will decide whether Country Club Hills will be on its way to being a first class community in every way or whether it will begin a slow downward trend to oblivion. A bit strong? Not in the least.

This Saturday is the day we can start moving toward an adequate school system for our children. A "YES" vote on both propositions will mean that by Christmas we will have a new school building and possibly in another year an addition until in a short time all of our children will be attending a first-rate school under one roof, not spread all over District 160 as they are now. This is the first step but it is necessary to take that step to insure the rest. Approval of both propositions will mean a savings to the district of more than $40,000 it was explained.

A great deal has been said and written on this referendum. Every organization in the community endorses both propositions, this may be of interest to those voters who are still undecided.

The most important thing to stress is that those of you who plan to vote YES must make it your duty to vote. The opposition (can there possibly be any?) as such will definitely find their way to the polls in spite of work, illness, cutting the grass or any one of a hundred little reasons that kept 78% of us from the polls in the recent school board election. The polls are open from noon until 7 p.m. at Central school, 184th and Central. If you need transportation, car pools have been formed in units 1, 2 and 3.

A call to SY 8-6620, SY 8-0336 or SY 8-9365 will bring a car to your door.

You need not be registered to vote in this referendum, all you need is the interest and incentive to reach the polls.

Mother's Club

The next regular meeting of the Mother's club will be May 7 in the Homeowner's building on Thomas Lane. This will be the third meeting after the new ruling went into effect. The new ruling states that anyone who has not attended a meeting or paid dues for three months will be automatically dropped from membership. If you have missed these meetings but still wish to remain a member please call the secretary, Eileen Hejmalik, SY 8-5981.

The Fun Fair will soon be here! It will be held at the Central school grounds May 25. Donations are still needed and a call to any member of the Mother's club will be sufficient, they will see that they are picked up. Let's itemize once more the types of booths: Green thumb, White Elephant (miscellaneous articles), hand made articles, jewelry; children's books, records and toys. Let's all plan to attend the Fun Fair, first of all to have a good time with our children and secondly because all proceeds go to the school by way of gifts from the Mothers club.

St. Joseph's Catholic Church

The Women's Guild will have their Spring dinner and Fashion show at Lincoln Heights restaurant May 13. Reservations must be in by May 4. For information and reservations call Mrs. Francis, SY 8-5451 or Mrs. Mitchell, SY 8-5647.

United Christian Church

Dr. Van Boskirk, at the last executive committee meeting had a preliminary sketch and floor plan of the proposed church. It was well received by the board and will be available for all to see at the Sunday services.

On May 6 Vincent Sweet will arrive to help conduct the pledge drive.

The choir is in the process of formation and all were pleased to have 14 turn out for the first rehearsal. Next rehearsal will be Thursday May 1 at 8 p.m. in the Homeowner's building. The guest director will be Dean B. Fred Wise of the American Conservatory of Music. If you like to sing and can carry a tune let's see you next Thursday.

Registration for the daily vacation bible school will close May 15. Please let Alice MacKenzie know if you plan to have your child attend so she can make her plans. Register at Sunday school or call her at SY 9-5399. The school will run from June 9 to 20, 9:30 a.m. to noon.

Rabies

The deputy inspectors of Cook County Rabies Control have been canvassing all unincorporated areas this past week. We are nearing the danger point in this area as rabid dogs have been found in communities surrounding us. It is necessary for a dog to have a rabies shot EVERY YEAR, one shot does not immunize them longer. The inspectors left certificates to be filled out by the veterinarian immunizing your dog. If you see a dog that seems to be lost or unowned and if he seems meek you are asked to tie it up and call the Sheriff's police or Rabies control immediately.

Boy Scouts

Troop 286 is going to sponsor a bake sale!

After the recent camping trip the need for camping equipment became most evident and what better way to raise the money needed than to have the good cooks of the area display their talents?

The sale will be at Garofalo's Southgate store May 25. There will be Scouts in the area asking for donations, there is plenty of time to practice on your specialties before the sale. Of course any type of donation is welcome but the Scouts hope to have some extra special goodies. If the Scouts happen to miss you and you want to participate please call Mr. Rrehart at SY 8-8298 or Mr. Katz at SY 8-9550. Your delicacies will be picked up, either Friday night or Saturday morning.

The second class board review was held last Friday. The board consisted of Al Katz, Cole Keyes, Chuck Smith and Bud Otto. The review was also attended by the neighborhood commissioner, Wesley Zimmerman, and Institutional representative Carl Timmerman.

As a result there are now 9 new second class scouts. Those passing the Review were Joe Buckley, Robert Butzer, Ken Kelly, Buddy Petroski, Ken Wrohlewski, Don Nash, John Langmeyer, Steve Forsgren and Bill Arvant.

Because of lack of time all the boys were unable to pass the Review. Another will be held next Friday, May 2.

Teen Club

A communique from Pat White of the Teen club gave the following information:

For only $1.25 you can go on a hay ride Saturday, May 3, and have a Weiner roast too (weiners included!) All the teens from school district 160 are invited. Call Pat for tickets SY 8-8297.

A meeting held of sponsors last Thursday brought forth the name for the teen club. "The Short Cuts". Present at the meeting were Mrs. Brown, Joe Brown

Kay Simmons, Jim Simmons, Mrs. Francis White and Pat White.

The big, dressy dance is going to be May 31. Make plans now because tickets go fast.

Registration for day camp closed April 29 but we still need some volunteers to help with the camp program. Imagine the relaxed and healthy atmosphere of the out of doors, plus the inner satisfaction of helping many girls have a safer and happier summer experience. The need is great! Limited staff means limited program and many girls will lose a wonderful opportunity.

Don't let small children keep you at home if they are over 2½ years of age. A "Squirrel Unit" is maintained under careful supervision for the benefit of those mothers who are helping at camp. Games, stories and good outdoor fun are offered at the exceptionally low fee of $1.50, which helps cover the expense of transportation, insurance, milk and food. Call Bobbie Waddell SY 8-7470 if you want to help.

Miscellany

Art and Dot Ebert, 4441 180th, were in a rather serious automobile accident last Friday. Both are in St. Francis hospital in Blue Island. Dot will be able to return home soon but Art, who has a broken shin bone in his left leg and a cracked tibia in his right knee will be hospitalized for some time.

Friends here in Country Club Hills plan to keep his cleaning route operating until he is able to take over once more. A phone call, card or better still a visit will help Art pass the time.

Mr. and Mrs. James Fitzgerald, 18030 Michael, welcomed their fourth child and fourth daughter last Friday. Laurene Dorothy weighed seven pounds and her sisters Kathleen 10, Patricia 8, and Karen 7, can hardly wait for her arrival at home.

The sympathy of the community is extended to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cannizzo on the death of Mr. Cannizzo's father in California. Mr. Cannizzo flew to the coast to attend the funeral.

Marge Wedderspoon held a bunco and bridge party last week as a "farewell" for Ginny Skovron, who with her family, is moving to Erie, Pa. Ginny received a lovely planter as a remembrance from the friends attending. Present were: Bobbie Waddell, Jean Landeen, Betty Spencer, Pat Cannizzo, Elinor Nally, Pat Coffman, Dee McGrath, Frances Wachala and Mary Lullo.

New resident of Country Club Hills is Cynthia Louise Alsip. Cynthia is the youngest child of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Alsip of 18101 Anthony. She was born April 13 and weighed 7 pounds 7½ ounces. The Alsips have three other children, Rusty 8, Michael 5, and Laury Beth 3.

Mrs. Bernice Hancock spent three days in Milwaukee last week. Her husband Bob, was attending a Dental convention and Bernice, due to her mother's generosity in caring for their two sons, was able to have a short, but needed, vacation.

Attending a benefit bridge dessert at Lincoln Heights restaurant were Dolly Nordgren, Jane Wulf, Jean Katz, Edith Huckins, Marge Thompson, Marilyn Schumaker and Maureen Sylvestrak. Marilyn and Maureen won table prizes and Dolly won a special prize. The affair was sponsored by Alpha Chi Omega sorority.

Well, as that lovable old cynic La Rochefoucauld once said "I thought you had it." Fini until next week.....

A tax cut, if it comes, is likely to take the form of a reduction of 10 per cent on the first $2,000 of taxable income, and 5 per cent on all income above that. A small cut in the corporation tax—perhaps 2 per cent—is also probable.

Urges Polio Shots For All Under Forty

"It is most important that everyone under 40 years of age complete the series of three polio injections immediately", according to Dr. John B. Hall, director of the Cook county health department. "In spite of the fact that there was less poliomyelitis in suburban Cook county in 1957, than in the past 20 years, the picture can readily change if people do not receive adequate protection", Dr. Hall pointed out.

"It has been estimated that 48.5 million Americans under the age of 40, the group most susceptible to polio, have as yet not had a single dose of the Salk Vaccine," Dr. Hall stated. "One out of four persons under the age of 20 years has not been vaccinated at all and 40 per cent of the children under the age of five years are still completely unprotected. If this picture does not change, a serious outbreak of polio may occur this summer."

"Children and adults who have had polio should still have a series of three injections", Dr. Hall stated. "There are three types of polio virus and a person who has recovered from infection of one type is not necessarily immune to the other two types."

"Many questions have been asked regarding the need for a fourth polio immunization or a booster polio shot. The answer to this question depends upon the interval since your original immunization. You can get further information regarding this matter from your family physician", Dr. Hall stated.

"The greatest need at this time is for all those persons who have not had any injections to begin them now. This is especially important for persons under the age of 20 but the most crucial age group is pre-school children. Those persons who have had one or two injections must realize that maximum protection can only be attained by completing the series of three injections", Dr. Hall concluded.

This is Texas Eastern....

The system that grew 1600 miles longer in one year

Texas Eastern's vast pipeline network — carrying both natural gas and petroleum products — increased in length during 1957 by more than 1600 miles.

And that was just one year! Since 1947 — when the war-built Big Inch and Little Big Inch were purchased from the government — Texas Eastern has more than doubled the length of its pipelines.

The significance of last year's pipeline growth is as much in its breadth — the variety of its uses — as in its 1600-mile length.

- As a transporter of refined oil products, Texas Eastern constructed a 238-mile lateral from Southern Indiana to Chicago to extend the length of its Little Big Inch system to 1700 miles. The new petroleum products system opens the Midwest to the Gulf Coast area's big refineries — which have 28 per cent of the nation's refining capacity.

- As a transporter of natural gas, Texas Eastern built nearly a thousand miles of pipelines, 422 miles of which consisted of a 30-inch line from Vidor to McAllen, Texas. This line links the Texas Eastern system with the rich fields in northeastern Mexico. As a result, a great new reserve of natural gas is made available to millions of homes and thousands of factories in a dozen or more Midwestern, Appalachian and Eastern Seaboard states for years to come.

In addition, Texas Eastern constructed hundreds of miles of various diameter pipelines that both increased the capacity of the existing system and extended lines into areas where new gas production has been discovered. All of which means that there will be more natural gas available to fill the growing consumer demand for this clean, economical and efficient fuel.

Girl Scout News

Girl Scouts of Tinley Park, of which troop 587 is a member, are sponsoring a square dance May 9 at 8 pm. in the Central school. This is a benefit dance for Camp Manistee, the Girl Scout Camp located at Montague, Mich. This would be a fine opportunity for the neighbors to get together and have a wonderful time, while helping the Scouts—no need to know how to dance. Tickets can be obtained from the Scouts or Mrs. R. Klecka, KE 2-3364.

Troop 587 had a special evening meeting April 16 at the Central school in Tinley Park. Mothers attended with their daughters. Two excellent hygiene films were shown and also a film strip entitled "A Puppy for Jose," which showed how migrant workers' children live.

About 500 migrant children arrive in South Cook county annually. These children and their parents make it possible to grow and harvest the huge crop of onions, tomatoes and other vegetables in this area. The staff of Jones Memorial center in Chicago Heights has been working with these people, trying to help them live a more normal life. There is much to be done for them, and they have asked the Girl Scouts to help by providing health, sewing and personal kits for the children. Our troop is planning on preparing the Health and Personal Kits.

A warm welcome is extended to new members Pat Shields of Mark Lane and James St., and Sally Bergeron of Tinley Park. Our troop now totals 14.

June 11 is a much anticipated date. That is when the troop will spend its first "over night" at Camp Thorn Creek in Thornton. The next six weeks will be have already planned their spent in planning and preparing for this big event. The girls menus and now are estimating quantities, equipment and costs. The menus include the basic 7 foods. Future meetings will be devoted to learning knife and axe care, knots, basic camping skills, planning games, hikes, campfire program, making a bed roll, and planning a "Scout's Own", which will be a solemn ceremony held before departing for home. The leaders are Mrs. Robert Klecka and Mrs. Donald Petersen.

Many hands make the work light when a group of men and older boys of the congregation turned out on a recent Saturday armed with garden implements of all kinds, to landscape the grounds of the Presbyterian church at 16621 Gaynelle.

The ladies did their part by providing hamburgers, salad, cake and coffee for the workers, and the job would have been completed in record time if the rain had held off for another hour or two.

The soil was cultivated and prepared for seed and much of the seeding was finished before the rain. Several weeping willows were planted which, while small now, will before too long be waving their graceful arms in the breeze. The circle in the cul de sac was also cleared and grass seed planted.

Something new has been added, a 3 ton load limit sign to greet entrants to the subdivision at 167th and Beverly, and 20 mile speed limit signs at several other points. The condition of our roads is hardly conducive to speeding, but the presence of the signs will serve as a reminder that there are small children who are very apt to dart out into the street unexpectedly.

Snip N' Snack 4H

The regular meeting of the Green Garden Snip n' Snack 4H club was held Saturday April 19 at the town hall. The meeting was opened by the president, Barbara Scheer. The secretary's and treasurer's reports were read and accepted. Happy Birthday was sung to the girls having birthdays in April.

An election of delegates to Camp Shaw waw nas see was held. Carolyn Patz and Nancy Steinberg were elected delegates and JoAnn Barlow and Sally Christensen as alternates. Talks were given by Kathy Voigt on Tornadoes, Sandra Bettenhausen on Clean up now, and Beverly Torok on Is My Home Safe?

Short talks on Party a Month were given by Ruth Stassen, Carol Waldhausen, Barbara Scheer, JoAnn Schmidt, Ruth Rainfort, Susan Nagel, Sandra Nagel, Sally Lehnert, Janet Johnson, Sharon Homerdig, Joyce Heisner, Gloria Heisner, Sandra Bettenhausen, Frances Forbes, Evelyn Diement, Leah Borms, JoAnn Barlow, and Bernadette Barlow.

The girls on the committee for Party a Month exhibit for the county fair are Kathy Voigt, Sandra Nagel, Carol Waldhausen, Carolyn Patz and Laurel Sipple.

Important dates are 4H Sunday on May 18, and Share the Fun on May 2.

The next meeting is set for May 10.

Cub Scouts Put In Licks on Gifts For Moms

By DOLORES ANDERSON
Tel. New Lenox 3651

Den 1 of Cub Scout pack 41 met Wednesday afternoon, after school. The boys are making surprise gifts for their mothers for Mothers Day. Plans were made for a skit in keeping with the circus theme for the month to be given at the May pack meeting. An outdoor meeting and potluck supper is also being planned for this month.

A large crowd attended the potluck supper and April meeting of the Schmuhl Community Club, held Friday night at the school. Mike Archie, Jeff Wright and James Chladek, members of the 2nd grade class, put on a skit, a story they had written.

Mrs. D. M. Owen, president conducted the business meeting. Plans were made for the annual picnic, and the date was set for the 8th.

The Busy Hour 4H club met Friday night in the Schmuhl school. The girls made plans to attend the "Share the Fun Festival" on May 2 at the Laraway school south of Joliet.

They also planned to attend the demonstration school in the Willow Avenue Presbyterian in Joliet May 3rd.

They will meet again May 9 in the school at 7:30 pm.

in the recipe for prosperity ...

YOUR HOME is the basic ingredient!

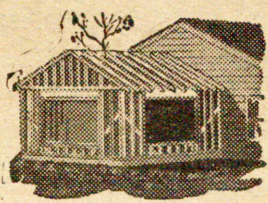

The new room you need, the modern kitchen, garage, attic room or any of the improvements you've wanted can give your family new comfort, new convenience, new pleasure, increased property value . . . and give the economy new jobs and new sales . . .

Your project, and those of millions of other homeowners who will provide themselves with better living in 1958 can help cure our economic headache . . .

No one modernizes his home, of course, just to help the economy. But we do suggest that you look into several important reasons why any home improvement is particularly timely right now . . . Reasons like these:

1. Prices on all building materials are especially favorable.
2. More than ever, your home is your best investment. Sound sensible improvements increases home value far beyond the actual cost.
3. No other investment has so little depreciation. The fact is an improvement now will be worth far more as time goes on.
4. Financing is readily obtainable.
5. Men to do the work are more available, too.

It all adds up to one crystal-clear conclusion: Home Improvements in 1958 is a sound investment, a sensible purchase Like Charity, Prosperity Begins at Home . . . Your Home.

*Mr. and Mrs. Walter Biederman and son and daughter have been working like beavers the past two weeks to improve their property. A cement block terrace has been built along the side of the house and evergreens and fitters have been transplanted there. The front of the house will have a wider front walk from the drive and a lovely rounded patio is being added in back, sheltered from the front street by their garage, which is attached to their ranch type house.

Mrs. Bene Andrew has enclosed a part of the large sun deck of her house which overlooks the small Lagoon. The porch is enclosed with jalousie windows and doors and three large picture windows which overlook three different views.

On April 22 the Andersons entertained at a small supper party in their home. April 23, a group of neighbors attended a Smorgasbord in Oak Lawn. The families attending were Mr. and Mrs. Chris Manos and Tom, Mr. and Mrs. William Snedden, Dorothy and Gary, the Art Arnolds, Mr. Woodbury, the Al Karres and daughters Debbie and Julie, Mr. and Mrs. John Nelson and Janine, Mr. and Mrs. George Brown, Sherrie and Rhett and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Anderson and son Charles Harris.

April 24, several of the ladies of Laguna Woods attended a fashion show in Oak Lawn. They were Mesdames Brown, Arnold, McBride, Murphy and Karre. Upon returning home Mrs. Karre was greeted by other friends who had planned a last minute surprise party in honor of her birthday April 23. The surprise party almost backfired when it was learned Mrs. Karre wasn't home. However Mr. Karre acted as host until Mrs. Karre returned home. The surprise party was the first one Mrs. Karre had had and she was certainly surprised when she arrived home to the tune of Surprise! Guests brought refreshments which included a birthday cake and ice cream. Mr. Karre played classical and popular songs on the organ and guests enjoyed a song fest.

April 28 Mrs. M. Anderson and her daughter in law, Mrs. Robert Anderson visited with Mrs. Ruter at her farm home in Custer Park. Mrs. Ruter is Mrs. M. Anderson's mother.

April 28 the Parent Teachers association of the Christ Evangelical Lutheran church met at the Sunday School building in Orland Park. Neighbors who attended the meeting were Mrs. William Snedden, Mrs. Al Karre and Mrs. Robert Anderson.

April 30, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Anderson and her parents Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Little moved into their new home at Redondo and Selva Lane. Henry Anderson's home is across the street from his brother, Robert's home. The houses face each other as they are both on corners and the houses were built on angles across the lots. "Welcome to Laguna folks, where neighbors are friends!"

Welcome home Bud, we missed you.

The Robert Andersons received a lovely anniversary gift from Mr. Anderson's aunt and uncle of Chicago, a Hi Fi set with everything included for installation.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Hunter were dinner guests of their daughter, Mrs. R. Anderson Sunday.

Hedge Fences Fast Leaving Illinois Scene

JOHN W. ALLEN
Southern Illinois University

Pausing to eat a picnic lunch at a roadside table a few days ago, we found some men using a bulldozer to dig out a nearby section of hedge fence. This brought to mind the fact that many significant objects in the Southern Illinois scene have vanished, often with hardly any notice. Among those that have almost completely disappeared are the once common hedges of Osage orange, Machura auranca to the botanist and bois d'arc to the French explorers who found the Indians using its wood for fashioning bows.

Before barbed wire came to supplant them, the landscape of Illinois was criss-crossed by thousands of miles of hedges made of the Osage orange. To-day only occasional bits of those fences remain, and these generally appear as tall overgrown fence rows or as an occasional bush that was left and is now grown to tree size.

Only in rare instances is one of these remaining portions of hedge used as a fence. None are the dense, trimmed hedges that once were common. Those found in service invariably have thin places, that have been patched with rails, planks, wire or poles to turn cattle. We know of no "pig tight" hedge fences still in use.

Fencing was always a major task on early farms. Persons settling in the woodland found plentiful timber for rails near at hand. On prairie borders timber also could be had, but not so readily. As settlers advanced miles into the open prairies the task of fencing became more difficult. If rails were used it often was necessary to haul them for miles by sled or wagon. Fencing, always a problem, became increasingly so as the woodlands were left behind. Faced with increasing difficulties, farmers sought other means of solving their fencing problems. Some built sod trench fences. By this process the sod was removed and piled in a levee like mound about the field

 Imported Idea

This mound in turn was planted with grass and shrubs. Early use of this method was made in the English settlement about Albion. Others built a low fence of posts, rails and pickets on a low mound. Both these fences were effective since the approaching animal would have its front feet in the ditch, a poor jumping position. Both required much labor to build. Occasionally farmers made fences of smooth wire, but such fences generally were not satisfactory.

The idea of using hedge fences came apparently from Europe perhaps from England, where they long had been used. Various shrubs and trees ranging from arbor vitae to walnut were tried. The two proving most satisfactory were the buck thorn and Osage orange, the latter one proving the better. Much of the experimental work that established the desirability of the Osage orange was done by Professor J. B. Turner of Jacksonville, who wrote and spoke often on the subject.

Tho hedge fences first came into general use on the prairies they were often planted on farms that had been cleared from the woodland. A few specimen trees on the grounds south of Southern Illinois University indicate where hedges once grew. A row of sturdy Osage orange trees is found near Half Moon lick at Equality. A quantity of hedge flourished northeast of Eldorado sixty years ago. It definitely invaded "Egypt." Growing an Osage orange hedge was not an altogether easy task as indicated by instructions given in various farm papers a hundred and more years ago. Much of the seed used came from Texas. It was best planted in the autumn in prepared seed beds but planting could be made in the spring. Seeds were planted about an inch apart in rows a foot apart. About a half million plants thus could be grown on an acre.

"Rabbit Tight"

The hedge was set in a prepared strip where it was to remain and cultivated for three years or more. If planted in a single row the plants were spaced eight or ten inches apart. Better results were obtained where the setting was made in two rows a foot apart with plants set alternately a foot apart in each row.

One year after setting, the hedge plants were cut off at a height of six inches. This caused thick branching near the ground. The next year they were cut to a height of 18 inches and one foot higher each year until the desired height was reached. The resulting fence was about "rabbit tight." A few older persons, then favorably located will recall those formidable fences.

On many farms new hedges are being planted. Now however, they are of multiflora roses. These new hedges evidently are not intended to confine livestock but are more for snow fences, game shelters and to soften the landscape. Perhaps a boy still can go down the leeward side of these new fences after a drifting snow just as other boys went along the vanished hedges of Osage orange with the old muzzle loader to shoot the "setting" rabbits which had taken refuge on the sunny side of the hedge and the resulting snowbanks.

Makes me somewhat "homesick." Believe I'll take such a saunter if a drifting snow comes next winter and I can find a hedge.

Nearly 27 per cent of U. S. drivers involved in 1957 traffic fatalities were under 25 years of age.

Scrap Drive Is On

The scrap paper and metal drive conducted by Boy Scout troop No. 49 last Saturday was such a success and the response so great that it was impossible for the boys and their helpers to canvass the entire community in one day. Because of that it was decided to devote another day to the task and Saturday of this week is it.

Trucks are being furnished by Otto Bormet, Thomas Gilchrist, Cities Service, New Lenox Lumber, Arthur Rowsell, Ted Rowsell and New Lenox Standard service.

The Scouts plan to hold similar drives at intervals and so ask townspeople to save their paper and scrap metal.

Thursday Nites

Mrs. James Walsh entertained the Thursday Nites club in her home at Marley, last week. Plans were made for a program of making charity baskets. They will consist of food and toys for the needy. A gift was presented to a club member, Mrs. Lloyd Cleveland, for her new baby. Card games were enjoyed after the meeting, and dessert-coffee was served.

The May meeting will be a cook-out at Van Horn woods where the group will prepare breakfast prior to the meeting.

Boy Scouts

Boy Scout troop 49 enjoyed a hike and overnight camp-out in Walkers woods Saturday and Sunday, April 19 and 20.

Although clothing, tents and provisions were soaked, the boy's spirits were not dampened, and some of the boys got a practical lesson in how not to pitch a tent during inclement weather. The next camp-out is tentatively scheduled for May 10, and the Scoutmasters and Senior Scouts plan to camp at the Indiana Dunes State park on the night of May 31.

St. Jude's to Honor Mary

St. Jude's school will consecrate the month of May to the Blessed Mother with special May Devotions.

ABNORMAL BECOMES NORMAL

Dorothy Thompson writes: "As I see it, we have been living since the beginning of World War II in an economy of perpetual boom, marked by overemployment, overexpansion and overbuying. This boom has now come to be accepted as normal, and as the only desirable economy, identified rather braggadocially with 'the American standard or living.' Whether it is a good economy, from the viewpoint of steady growth, is highly dubious, and whether it is good from the viewpoint of our civilization and culture is even more so."
